Short description: The aim of the event was:
Event 1 has focused on the research and collection of images and photos by all the partners involved in creating an exhibition (Gates no frontiers) and an e-book containing the collected material. The photographic exhibition has been the strong point of the project as it tells both the East and the West representing the different national stories during the Cold War and enhancing its specificities and elements in common. The collection of images and photos was made in public and private archives, thanks to the research conducted by the various partners in their countries, unpublished images and stories were discovered. The selected material came into the form of an itinerant exhibition that has touched several partner countries (Italy in various cities and locations, Spain, Ireland and Lithuania). A specific section of the project's website (www.wallsandintegration.it) and an E-book were linked to the exhibition with all the content collected, with the contributions of the experts. Both the web site and the ebook have been designed, built and implemented by some students from the Istituto Tecnico Commerciale in Macerata. The exhibition, besides being visited in its various stages, viewed through the website and collected in the downloadable e-book at any time, after the end of the project will be exhibited and permanently visited at the headquarters of the Istituto Tecnico Commerciale in Macerata.
