

Introductory meetings for new enrolled students

7th October 2019, 5:00 – 7:00 p.m.

Teatro Ruzante
Riviera Tito Livio

Meeting for the presentation of the main features and services of the Master's Course in Human Rights and Multi-level Governance 2019-20: curricular and extra-curricular activities, Erasmus+, Stage, Library system, International Office Welcome Unit, Summer and Winter Schools

1222-2022
800
ANNI

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
DI PADOVA

Sp@ji

Dipartimento di Scienze Politiche,
Giuridiche e Studi Internazionali

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
DI PADOVA

CENTRO DI ATENEO
PER I DIRITTI UMANI
"ANTONIO PAPISCA"

Programme

- 5:00: Welcome address by the Master's director, Marco Mascia
- 5:10: General presentation of the master's curricular and of extra-curricular programmes (Paolo De Stefani, Master's academic coordinator)
- 5:40: Welcome address from the second year's students Katrina Yusay Casulla, Kristina Reshetova, Morgane Afnaim, Alejandro Álvarez Ramírez (including a call to participate in the Padova Model UPR 2019 and a note on "United for Nepal")
- 5:50: The SPGI Department's general services for students (Blerina Brami)
- 6:00: The Erasmus+ and other international mobility programmes, including double degree schemes (Anna Gottardo)
- 6:20: Career service: curricular stage and other internship opportunities (Alice Correale)
- 6:30: The UNIPD library system and e-library resources (Maria Cristina Vettore)
- 6:40: Services for non-Italian students by the International Office Welcome Unit (Elisa Gamba)

More master's lecturers will participate in the exchange

Further ad hoc meetings will be organised during the first semester about:

- Double degree schemes with the Universities of Wroclaw and Lyon (Catholic University)/Grenoble Alpes
- Model UPR project (October-November 2019), Simulation and training days with the Italian Red Cross (April 2020), Study trip to Geneva (May 2020), "learning by experience" project (Summer 2020)
- Summer School on Normativity and reality of human rights, and Winter school (in Nepal) on Microfinance in action (2020)

During the "didactic improvement week" (November-December), a meeting will be scheduled to discuss ongoing challenges and how to advance teaching and learning methods.