

27th May 2019

THE ARCTIC: NEW POLITICAL AND LEGAL PERSPECTIVES

9:30 am

Welcome

Antonio Parbonetti

Vice Rector for Organization and Management Processes

Elena Pariotti

Director of Department of Political Science, Law and International Studies

Arturo Lorenzoni

Vice-Mayor of Padua

Introduction

Alessandra Pietrobon

Professor of International Law, University of Padua

Session I

Chair: Maria Laura Picchio Forlati

Past-Professor of International Law, University of Padua

Barents Sea, at the Center of the New Arctic

Marzio G. Mian

Journalist, Author of the Investigative Volume L'Artico

Oil Extraction in the Arctic and Climate Change

Arturo Lorenzoni

Professor of Energy Economics, University of Padua

Coffee Break

Norway. A Study on Ideational Power. How a Small State Turned into an Economic and Humanitarian Superpower

Giorgio Novello

Former Ambassador of Italy to Norway

Governing the Arctic: Key Challenges and Strategic Response from the European Union

Marie-Anne Coninx

EU Ambassador at Large for the Arctic

15:00 pm

Session II

Chair: Andrea Gattini

Professor of International Law, University of Padua

Russian Policy, Strategy, Legislation and Doctrine on the Legal Regime of the Arctic Ocean

Aslan Abashidze

Professor of International Law, Peoples' Friendship University of Russia

What is the Position of Arctic Indigenous Peoples in Arctic Governance?

Timo Koivurova

University of Lapland

Director of the Arctic Center

Coffee Break

The Contribution of Space Law and Applications to Arctic Sustainability Policies

Sergio Marchisio

Professor of International Law, University of Rome La Sapienza

Arctic Shipping and the Law of the Sea

Enrico Zamuner

Professor of International Law, University of Padua

AULA NIEVO

Palazzo Bo

Via VIII Febbraio 2, Padova

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
DI PADOVA

Spogi

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE,
LAW AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

PHD IN INTERNATIONAL LAW,
PRIVATE AND LABOUR LAW