

IPSE – International Politics and Security Spring School is organized by the Department of Political Science, Law and International Studies of the University of Padua. IPSE addresses the main changes in International Politics & Security, thanks to an historical and integrated approach: it relies on a network of 13 Universities, involving worldwide well-known experts that study Security and International Relations from a multidisciplinary perspective. From History to Political Science, from Sociology to Economy and International Relations, IPSE offers a unique opportunity to learn the most relevant scientific developments in this area of knowledge. IPSE is open to MA and PhD students, and early postdoctoral students who have a specific interest in these topics. The 3rd edition of the IPSE Spring School will be organized in April/May 2022 in Padua (first session: 27th of April; plenary session: 11th-14th of May). Workshops and a Junior Conference will give you the chance to play an active role in the academic discussion. Join IPSE Spring School to enjoy a high academic experience in the field of Security and International Relations!
